third car back out for Knockhill, and once things are a little further down the line we will be able to announce further details on who our new driver will be."

"First things first though, we need to pick up from where we left off at Croft. We've always gone well at Snetterton and we're heading into the 2nd half of the season with a positive approach," added Bartrum.

"We have our eye on defending the Independent Teams' trophy and for Mat to take the Indy Drivers' title and to do that we have to take as many wins and podiums as we can. Unfortunately I feel that the overall title is out of reach for us now, but we'll keep pushing, and with the aim of getting Mat into the top six and for us to finish up as high as possible in the standings."
